

INVITATION FOR A COATING AND DISPENSING SEMINAR

Protect your electronics

27TH & 28TH OF NOVEMBER 2018

In our fast-changing world electronics are playing an increasingly prominent role. The electronics are not only for our entertainment, but more importantly for our day-to-day activities and wellbeing.

Simply step into your car and think about the electronics that make sure we arrive safely at our next destination. Consider autonomous driving and we all understand the importance of reliable, fully functional electronics. Enabling reliable electronics means protecting the electronics against all kinds of external influences such as moisture, chemicals, mechanical shocks or (extreme) temperature variations.

Industry competence presence

Mycronic has joined forces with Viscotec, Modus, Humiseal, Schnaidt, Lackwerke Peters, Henkel and Vermes to organise a technical seminar focused on how to protect and inspect the electronics of today.
